Kitchen and Dining Room

Here is where Ignacio officiates as the alma mater of the restaurant. Offering a cuisine with creative touches...

the product is the most important part of his philosophy, and, with innate wisdom despite his youth, examines the five senses of the palates of discerning guests. No friend of free devices, he searches for the best in the market for the pleasure of the diner. The Solana's dining room offers a service of apparent simplicity, even folksy, but rigorous in the background, giving prominence to the culinary. The dining room is run by Ignacio's sister Inma, accompanied daily by Noelia the second matri. Together with Ana, a waitress of the house from its inception, they provide a homely environment to all visitors.
